The great 'Cali' of Colombia!

Cali is a Colombian city in the Valle del Cauca department, southwest of Bogotá. It's known for salsa dancing and there are many clubs in the suburb of Juanchito. In Cali's oldest quarter, the neoclassical San Pedro Cathedral houses paintings of the Quilbo School. Nearby is the 19th and 19th-century San Francisco Religious Complex. La Merced Chapel is where the first mass was held after Cali was founded in 1536.

Tourism

The Cat Park
The Río Cali is the city, and along pedestrian areas, and shady areas. You'll also stumble Cat Park, or El Tejeda, a city improvement project that's home to a three-ton giant bronze cat donated by Colombian artist, Hermando Tejeda. Today you'll see an additional 15 smaller cat statues in the park, all painted by local artists.

located in the north of its banks you'll find bike lanes, statues, where you can relax, upon Cali's famous Parque del Gato de

San de Luz, and Swing Latino. For a real salsa experience with the old pros dancing alongside the tourists, you'll be spoiled for choice, but check out Zaparco, Tin Tin Deo, and La Topa pretty much mandatory that you either learn to do and wing it, or take salsa dancing lessons, like El Son de Luz, and Swing Latino. For a real salsa experience with the old pros dancing alongside the tourists, you'll be spoiled for choice, but check out Zaparco, Tin Tin Deo, and La Topa

Artadote
An undiscovered gem just outside the city, this huge butterfly farm features over 15 elegant technicolored species. A series of pretty walking trails weave through the complex while knowledgeable guides do a bang-up job of explaining the life cycles of these remarkable creatures—from caterpillar to cocoon to butterfly.

Iglesia de San Antonio
Set atop a hill to the west of the historical center lies Iglesia de San Antonio, a quaint 18th-century church that contains a number of unique wood-carved religious artifacts. Must come to enjoy the pleasant surrounding park, however, which affords excellent views of the city.

Enrique Buenaventura Municipal Theater
This wonderful theater, located in the historic center of Cali, is another example of the architecture that still retains the city. It has a classic Italian style and is decorated with various works by national and foreign artists. One of the most prominent is the fresco of the plumed, made by the Colombian painter Mateo Rianelli Andreani. Likewise, part of the foyer's decoration is the work of also Colombian Hernán Martínez, who was inspired by the work of other large foyers, such as, in

US wildfire smoke brings haze to Mexico, Canada, Europe

Portland, Sept 17: Wildfire smoke brings haze, vivid sunsets to East Coast. The smoke from dozens of wildfires in the western United States is stretching clear across the country and even pushing into Mexico, Canada and Europe. While the dangerous plumes are forcing people inside along the West Coast, residents thousands of miles away in the East are seeing unusually hazy skies and remarkable sunsets. The wildfires razing across under-dry landscape in California, Idaho, Oregon and Washington are extraordinary, but the long reach of their smoke isn't unprecedented.

Portland, Sept 17: Wildfire smoke brings haze, vivid sunsets to East Coast. The smoke from dozens of wildfires in the western United States is stretching clear across the country and even pushing into Mexico, Canada and Europe. While the dangerous plumes are forcing people inside along the West Coast, residents thousands of miles away in the East are seeing unusually hazy skies and remarkable sunsets. The wildfires razing across under-dry landscape in California, Idaho, Oregon and Washington are extraordinary, but the long reach of their smoke isn't unprecedented.

haze free, experts say the smoke poses less of a health concern for those who are further away. The sun was transformed into a perfect orange orb as it set over New York City. Photographs of it sinking behind the skyline and glinting through tree leaves flooded social media. On Wednesday, New Jersey residents described a yellow tinge to the overcast skies, and weather forecasters were kept busy explaining the phenomenon and making predictions as to how long the conditions would last. On the opposite coast, air quality conditions were among some of the worst ever recorded. Smoke choked the Golden Gate Bridge and left Portland and Seattle in an ashly fog, as crews have exhausted themselves trying to keep the flames from consuming more homes and even wider swaths of forest. Satellite images showed that smoke from the wildfires has traveled almost 5,000 miles (8,000 kilometers) to Britain and other parts of northern Europe, scientists said.

Beijing, Sept 17: China's State Councilor Yang Jiechi will attend the 10th meeting of BRICS National Security Advisors on Thursday, the Foreign Ministry said. Yang is also a member of the Politburo of the ruling Communist Party of China and director of the Office of the Central Commission for Foreign Affairs.

The meeting will take place via video conference, and terrorism, cybersecurity and cooperation will top Yang's agenda, the ministry's spokesman, Wang Weibin, told reporters here.
